NOTE "

NOTES FORMING PART OF STATEMENT OF PARTICULARS IN FORM 3CD

1. As no separate details have been maintained it is not possible for us to verify the nature and extent of Personal expenses debited to the Profit & Loss Account. However, expenses specifically submitted by the assessee personal expenses debited to the Profit & Loss is Rs. 5,000/-
2. In respect of payment by cheque we have to state that it is not possible for us to verify whether the payments are in excess of Rs. 10,000/- have been made otherwise than by Account payee or draft considering the limited nature of evidences, if any, in possession of the assessee.
3. In respect loan or advances transactions, acceptance/payment by cheque or Draft we have to state that it is not possible for us to verify whether the acceptance/payment in excess of Rs.20,000/- have been made otherwise than by crossed cheque/electronic mode or draft, considering the limited nature of evidences, if any, in possession of the assessee. In respect of receipt/payment in an amount exceeding the limit specified in section 269ST, in aggregate from a person in a day or in respect of a single transaction or in respect of transactions relating to one event or occasions from a person, received by a cheque or bank draft, not being an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft, we have to state that it is not possible for us to verify whether the acceptance/payment in excess of the limit specified in section 269ST have been made otherwise than by crossed cheque/electronic mode or draft, considering the limited nature of evidences,. According to the statement submitted by the assessee, payments/receipts in excess of Rs.20,000/- in case of loan or advances transactions and payments/receipts in excess limit specified in section 269ST made otherwise than crossed cheque electronic mode or draft are Nil.
4. The assessee consistently adopts exclusive method as regards to GST on Purchase, Sales & Service Income. This accounting treatment has no effect on the profit for the Firm. GST collected on supply of goods is not passed through Profit and Loss account as the same is credited separately to "GST Payable A/c." which is subject to set-off against GST Input Tax on Purchase. GST paid on inward supply of goods is not passed through profit and Loss account as the same is debited separately to "GST Input Tax" which is eligible as input tax credit of GST. The balance of ITC of GST after set off against the output GST liability/Rebate claim of export at the end of the year is eligible for carry forward for the purpose of set off against GST liability on supply in subsequent year, which is shown under the HEAD loans and advances of schedule of current assets, loans and advance forming part of Balance Sheet.Net GST payable, if any, at the end of the year is reflected as Liability in the Balance sheet. Exclusive Method of accounting treatment has no effect on the profit for the year, even if "Inclusive Method" as regards to purchase, sales and closing stock of goods as stipulated u/s.145A is followed as explained in Schedule-F of the Schedules forming part of form No.3CD.
5. We have verified the compliance with the provisions of Chapter XVII B and XVII BB regarding the deduction of tax at source and Tax collection at source and regarding the payment thereof to the credit of the Central Government in accordance with the Auditing Standards generally accepted in India which include test checks and the concept of materiality. Such audit procedure did not reveal any significant non-compliance with the provisions of Chapter XVII-B and XVII-BB.
6. In the course of our audit, for the purpose of verifying disallowances under section 43B(h) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 as per clause 22, we have conducted verification on a test check basis. We have relied on the MSME classification provided by the auditee and the representations made by the management. We have not independently verified the accuracy of the MSME classification. Consequently, our verification of the compliance with section 43B(h) is based on the information and representations provided by the auditee's management, and our opinion is formed based on the selected samples reviewed. Our opinion is thus dependent on the correctness of these classifications, representations, and the sample's adequacy. Due to these limitations, the amount of disallowance mentioned in clause 22 may not be accurate or complete.

7. Income Computation and Disclosures Standard

ICDS I: Accounting Policies:

a. The financial statements are prepared under the mercantile method of accounting, historical cost convention in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India.

ICDS II: Valuation of Inventories:

a. Inventories are valued at cost or net realizable value whichever is lower.

b. Net realization value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated cost of completion and estimated costs necessary to make sale.

c. The assessee consistently adopts the exclusive method regarding GST on Purchases, Sales & Service Income. This accounting treatment has no effect on the profit for the Firm. GST collected on the supply of goods is not passed through the Profit and Loss account as the same is credited separately to "GST Payable A/c." which is subject to set-off against GST Input Tax on Purchase. GST paid on inward supply of goods is not passed through the Profit and Loss account as the same is debited separately to "GST Input Tax" which is eligible as input tax credit of GST. The balance of ITC of GST after set-off against the output GST liability/Rebate claim of export at the end of the year is eligible for carry forward for the purpose of set off against GST liability on supply in subsequent year, which is shown under the HEAD loans and advances of schedule of current assets, loans and advance forming part of Balance Sheet. Net GST payable, if any, at the end of the year is reflected as Liability in the Balance sheet. Exclusive Method of accounting treatment has no effect on the profit for the year, even if "Inclusive Method" as regards to purchase, sales and closing stock of goods as stipulated u/s.145A is followed as explained in Schedule-F of the Schedules forming part of form No.3CD

ICDS III: Construction Accounting:

a. Not applicable to the Assessee as assessee is not engaged in Construction business.

ICDS IV Revenue Recognition:

a. Revenue is recognized only when risks and rewards incidental to ownership are transferred to the customer, it can be reliably measured and it is reasonable to expect ultimate collection.

ICDS V: Tangible Fixed Assets:

a. Tangible Fixed Assets are stated at cost of acquisition or construction less accumulated depreciation. The cost of fixed assets includes non-refundable taxes and levies, freight and other incidental expenses related to acquisition and installation of the respective assets.

b. Direct cost is capitalized until fixed assets are ready for use.

c. Depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on written down value method in the accounts during the previous year, at the rates prescribed by the Income Tax Rules.
